

I would like to comment on klove radio station. This station serves the local community by broadcasting local events and concerts that I would not know about otherwise - these are often things not covered by the local newspaper. Klove offers music that I know promotes the values that I believe in. I have not found a local station that does in a way that offers a variety of music for different tastes.